

✖ As long as we're at it, the Regional Greenhouse Gas Initiative has posted an announcement for a potentially important job opportunity:

RGGI, Inc. seeks to hire a program coordinator to support the implementation of the Regional Greenhouse Gas Initiative (RGGI), a cooperative effort of Northeastern and Mid-Atlantic states to reduce carbon dioxide emissions from the power sector.

The Program Coordinator will provide administrative, project management and program coordination support across all program areas. The Program Coordinator provides overall scheduling, logistical and process management to the organization. The Program Coordinator acts as a liaison with the Board of Directors, maintains Board records and coordinates logistics and materials for meetings of the Board of Directors, state agency staff and stakeholders on program components. The Program Coordinator also assists the Executive Director by managing timelines and logistics for deliverables, such as agendas, program materials and presentations and will assist in the preparation of these deliverables.

The position will be based in — New York City, of course. Probably not in the Bronx.
