

For Legal Planet readers interested in hearing the latest on energy and climate change law and policy, the Environmental Law Section of the California State Bar will be holding a one-day conference on the subject at the UC Berkeley School of Law on Thursday, November 14th. Entitled “Energy and Climate Change: California’s Efforts to Reduce Greenhouse Gas Emissions Through Renewables, Fuels, and Markets,” the conference will feature keynote and panel speakers including:

- Mary Nichols (Chair of the California Air Resources Board)
- David Hochschild (Commissioner, California Energy Commission)
- Cliff Rechtschaffen (Senior Adviser to Governor Brown)

For more information, download the brochure, see an on-line version, and register here. Law students are free with registration.

The conference begins at 9:30am and ends at 5pm and will be held at:

Booth Auditorium
UC Berkeley School of Law
Berkeley, CA

Campus map here. This event offers up to 6 hours of California MCLE credit. Hope to see you there!