

As we have noted in earlier posts, President Trump issued an executive order calling for the Interior Department to review a range of National Monuments created over the past 16 years through Presidential proclamations. The Interior Department has recently announced a public comment period for that review. If you are interested in sharing your comments about any of the National Monuments under review (list here), and what should be their future status, you can put your two cents:

Comments may be submitted online after May 12 at <http://www.regulations.gov> by entering “DOI-2017-0002” in the Search bar and clicking “Search,” or by mail to Monument Review, MS-1530, U.S. Department of the Interior, 1849 C Street NW, Washington, DC 20240. Please note that comments on the Bears Ears National Monument are due within 15 days of the beginning of the comment period, while comments on other monuments are due within 60 days.
