Here's a scary thought. There's an important new development in environmental law. OK, that could be scary, especially if it involves the current Congress. But the really scary thought is this: what if you don't find out about it because you forgot to check Legal Planet that day?

Fortunately, the remedy is at hand. If you look on the right side of the page, you'll see a place where you can fill in your email and get instant updates about new Legal Planet posts. Don't worry — we won't use your email for anything else. In the first place, we're too nice to do that. In the second place, none of us is tech-savvy enough to figure out how to access the list emails anyway.
