

This blog features some work by some junior scholars and some established ones. One thing that we've tried to do, from time to time, is to direct attention to new electronic sources on environmental law. In that spirit, here some blogs and twitter feeds featuring junior scholars that we think are worth a look:

Matt Festa and Ken Stahl: The Land Use Profs blog

Brigham Daniels, Blake Hudson, Dave Owen, Lincoln Davies, Hannah Wiseman: The Environmental Law Profs blog

Ole Pederson: International Law Observer

Michelle Bryan Mudd: Et al.

Elizabeth Burleson, <http://greenlaw.blogs.law.pace.edu/>

Twitter:

Blake Hudson @Blake_Hudson23

Alex Wang: @greenlawchina

Jessie Owley: @JessicaOwley

Another good twitter source (from a journalist rather than a lawyer) is @lawrencehurley

Let us know about others that should be added to the list.
